SHAW ALUMNI AND EDUCATORS HEAR SHAW UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Party Are House Guests of Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Daniels.

Columbia, S. C. Plans for the observance of the 70th Anniversary of the founding of Shaw University was told a selected group of Shaw Alumni and friends by Dr. Stewart Nelson, President of Shaw University at the home of Dr. L. M. Daniels, Mr. Stuart Nelson and Mrs. Modocai Johnson, wife of the President of Howard University accompanied President Nelson to Columbia. President Nelson gave a brief explanation of the responsibility of every Negro to support the private Negro Colleges that were founded by white benefactors who had come to the south land. He particularly placed the cause of Shaw University before the Shaw Alumni and friends who had been invited to meet and hear him. He explained the plan that had been launched to raise $70,000 for Shaw University.

Pledges to be paid in by November, 1935, were taken from the Shaw Alumni and several friends who were present. One thousand blocks of $70 each will be raised from Shaw Alumni and friends according to President Nelson. Already more than 41,000 has been subscribed, he said. At the meeting here Friday evening more than $300 was pledged. More than $100 in cash was paid on pledges made here.

Five Medical Alumni, who finished Shaw University when the Leonard Medical School was a part of the University pledged near $200. Dr. J. J. Starke, President of Benedict College paid $70 in cash for one block. Rev. J. P. Reeder pledged $25 toward the drive. President Starke and Rev. Reeder are not alumni of Shaw University.

Drs. L. M. Daniels, N. A. Jenkins, W. D. Chapple and W. A. Thomas planned the get together and entertainment here for President Nelson. Dr. J. E. Pickett, Camden, S. C., was the other Shaw alumni present at the meeting. President Nelson, his wife, and Mrs. Modocai Johnson were house guests of Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Daniels while in Columbia. President Nelson made several other stops in South Carolina contacting Shaw alumni and friends. Every where, he stated he had met with surprising success.

To The Baptist Brotherhood

We are so near the State until we begin to feel here. So we are looking for glad anticipations when we shall meet in Florence in the Trinity Church, with our big brother, Rev. A. W. Hill and his good people. With every thought of the city of Florence we think of the late Dr. E. R. Roberts who passed about one year ago.

Since we are looking forward with anticipation of this being the greatest contention in its history, I noted that Rev. F. D. Sims of Chester, S. C., has offered some splendid suggestions in the "School and Union" for April. He said: "Since there are so many racers for the different offices, I suggest not to elect a man who has already canvassed or offered himself for anything, for he is seeking his personal benefit, and that only. Let the office seek the man." I think this a fine suggestion; it does not say a person should not be elected whose friends have canvassed for him or whose friends have offered him for the office, but rather he says let the office seek the man. I know no other way for an office to seek a man other than for his friends to offer him for a candidate. Sims according to Rev. Sims article this is the only right way to do it the friends of Rev. H. W. D. Stewart take pleasure in offering him for treasurer of the State Convention of South Carolina, and we feel that the convention will agree that his friends did not make a mistake.

J. H. LEWIS.

HARBISON INSTITUTE NOTES

The beautiful scenery of building and flowering plants and trees remind us that the school term is fast coming to an end. All spare time is used in preparation of school closing events.

The High School under the supervision of Mr. Rollin P. Green gave a very interesting program of stunts in the school chapel.

On Mrs. Porter's birthday Dr. and Mrs. Porter had the faculty as guests to a lovely dinner. The evening was spent in discussion of current events ending with a contest of advantages and disadvantages of the radio, airplane, moving pictures and automobiles.

On Friday evening, March 29th, the Young Literary Society had its annual March Exhibition. It was a great evening for the young men and their fair damsels. Messrs. Milton Belle, DeGranville Burke, and Wm. Nelson were here for the happy event. These young men are last year graduates of Harbison and are now in school at Johnson C. Smith University.

Mr. Rochester Jones has been elected to our faculty taking the place of the Rev. D. T. Murray, who has been appointed as a Field Worker in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jones were pleasant visitors on our campus over the week-end.

Friends were glad to see on the campus last Sabbath Rev. R. W. Parker of Lancaster, a former graduate of Harbison.

On Sabbath night past the Young Men's Christian Association had their annual sermon preached by Rev. Linchberger (wife) of our community.

Mrs. Gandy and children who have lived here several years returned to their home in Philadelphia, Penn. last Tuesday. Mrs. Gandy, whose health was impaired returned to her husband much improved.

April showers past week had vegetation growing beautifully and flowers blooming profusely.

St. Pauline Dority of S. Griffin St. was indisposed for several days last week.

Mr. George Dennison, athlete and alumnus of Wilson School joined the Palmetto Leader reading circle last week.

One more week and the Easter butterflies will be freed from the cocoon of Lent.

Glad tidings of great joy was heralded to the race when the Scottsboro boys were acquitted, for truly we can say that Ethiopia has been at the bar of justice long enough but a poet says "Justice travels with a leaden heel and strikes with an iron hand," the heel of heavy lead traveled to us it seems so very slow but it brought freedom to our black heroes who bore the tortures of prison cells and night mares of execution with fortitude. It pains us to know that numbers of Ethiopia sons did not have the chance to prove their innocence as the Scottsboro boys did and the result was—they were lynched, ridiculed with bullets and buried.

The iron hand of justice bound the innocent boys, until they confessed the truth and gave freedom to imprisoned youths.

N. C. STATE TEACHERS MEET IN RALEIGH APRIL 18-20.

The Negro Teachers of North Carolina after enduring the hardships entailed by two years of living on the mere essentials of life, due to curtailed salaries, are today in a brighter mood as they look forward to a substantial increase in salary for the next biennium. They will therefore attend the fifty-fourth annual session of the North Carolina Negro Teachers' Association, which will convene in the Memorial Auditorium in the city of Raleigh, April the eighteenth through the twentieth.

The general sessions are to be held Thursday night at eight P. M. at which time addresses will be made by Professor Guy B. Phillips, retiring president of the North Carolina Educational Association, and Dr. W. E. B. Dubois, formerly editor of the Crisis and outstanding Editor, at present head of the Department of Sociology at the Atlanta University. Friday evening at the same hour, will feature addresses by Dr. Harry W. Crane, director of the Division of Mental Hygiene of the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare, Professor A. Elder, Dean of the North Carolina College for Negroes at Durham and State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Dr. Clyde A. Erwin.

On Friday afternoon at three-thirty o'clock, His Excellency Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus is expected to address the Assembly in his duties in connection with the meeting of the General Assembly.

The membership of the Association which is at present twenty-four hundred is expected to be largely increased on account of the reduction of the membership dues from one-dollar and fifty-cents to one dollar.

Raleigh is making active preparation to demonstrate to the teachers the genuine hospitality for which this city is so well known. The teachers of the entire county of Wake are joining the teachers of the city of Raleigh in their efforts to make the stay of the teachers both interesting and profitable. Mrs. Julia A. Williams is the General Chairman of the Local Committee of Arrangements.

The Association includes in its membership, the leading educators of the state of North Carolina. Departmental meetings of the College, High School, Elementary, Vocational and Home Economics sections will occupy fully the morning sessions with discussions of topics of vital interest to the teachers.

Many State College and Public School teachers are on the program and there is every reason to feel that the present session will be well worth attending. Dr. J. A. Bias, president of the State Normal School at Elizabeth City, is president of the Association. Dr. G. E. Davis, the Executive Secretary.

C. H. VINSON PASSES

C. H. Vinson Sr., 60, well known by both races died in the Columbia Hospital Wednesday, March 27 at 10 o'clock from injuries received when his car collided with a Southern R. R. Passenger train two weeks earlier.

Mr. Vinson was born in Anderson County, May, 1875, the son of Robert and Mary Vinson. During his early manhood he was married to Miss Anna Long, while still a young man he moved to Columbia. For quite a number of years he worked for Lorick and Lowrance and while there he mastered the stove repairing trade. Later he heeded the "call to business." He was an outstanding business man. Educated in the public schools of Anderson County he knew how to figure material and labor in making estimates for work to be done. Thus performing he gained the confidence of both races built for himself a lucrative business with profits for investments in houses and land as well as in banks, buildings, etc. Charlie Vinson known by all Columbians as Brother Vinson was indeed a brother to all humanity. He was no "nigger" and made no noise on the highway of life that leads from the cradle to the grave. While he had no fears and never flinched. He was not generally looked or except among the lowly and the humble; he was quiet and unassuming at all times giving his first and best service to his family, his church and his neighbors. Seemingly conigned of the fact that service thus rendered earned for him a place in God's kingdom. The place, talked of exhausted about and impressed upon men and women along life's highway, in no uncertain way by this great citizen and apostle of Jesus Christ in the person of Bro. Charlie Vinson.

He leaves to mourn his loss: a wife and eight children, four sons, and four daughters, two sisters and a host of relatives and friends.

Funeral services for Brother Vinson were conducted at Wesley M. E. Church, Sunday March 31, by Rev. P. E. Mingo, the pastor, assisted by Reverends Johnson, Poe, Anderson and Briggs.

FORMER COLUMBIAN GRAD MAKES GOOD IN D. C. SCHOOLS

Annie M. Roll, former of Columbia, S. C., but now of Washington, D. C., is achieving success in the District Schools.

In the year of 1922 she entered the R. Hall Junior High School and was voted by the student body as the "all round girl." This designation was given her for that year. She also finished as one of the top scorers in the year-end examinations. Her class was congratulated by her former Congressman, Oscar DePriest, who also congratulated her on the manner in which she spoke.

In September, 1931 she entered the Cardozo Business High School where she was elected president of her class and treasurer of the entire Sophomore class. In February, 1935, Annie was elected president of the mid-year class and president of the entire Sophomore class. She has been on the honor roll since she entered Cardozo. She is pursuing studies in business education, consisting of national type, sales, English, book-keeping and commercial art. She is now working hard to win a scholarship to Howard University.

Along with the honors achieved in school, Annie is also a member and teacher in the Enon Baptist Sunday school.

We all wish her much success in the coming years.

National Health Week was observed last week in the city. This is a forward movement sponsored yearly by colored people. It was given its initial send off by Booker Washington. This was however, just one of the many ideas coming from his disciplined imagination. Jesus made his attitude quite clear on the subject of health and medical science. This was revealed on many occasions but stands out particularly in his healing of a paralytic who was lowered from the roof of a house in which he was teaching. For nearly a quarter of a century medical science has been promoted in Union by race men and women. The field was pioneered by Doctors Hardy and Charles A. Dawkins.
