MILL CREEK NEWS

Sunday's service was at its best.
Our efficient P. E. Rev. E. F. G.
Dent delivered a wonderful message subject "Leadership" and he seemed to had been at his best. Every body felt spiritually alive, and 3 persons joined the church.
After the morning service the P. E. opened his third quarterly conference which was also a success.
He spoke very highly of the work done by the pastor and members.
The pastor and Bro. M. Mack were the dinner guests of Miss Ella Jackson on Friday and they enjoyed a fine repast. She left on Saturday for New York to spend the summer with her sister.
Those on the sick list are Miss M. Hunter, Sister Dessasau and Gillie, but we pray for them a speedy recovery.

UNION NEWS

Last Sunday was very warm and hot, fans were very much expected during church hours, through the kindness of the North Carolina Mutual Insurance Co., sponsored by Prof. G. W. Bolden, we were favored with several dozens of which we thank him for and the same at Bethel Church.
Prof. Bumgardner, who is here in interest of an Insurance Co.
He addressed the Sunday School at Bethel Sunday morning. He is full of thought and inspiration.
We say come again Professor.
Services at Bethel, St. Paul, and Clinton Chapel Churches, were well attended last Sunday, the report shows that much interest is being manifested by the officers and all of them are spiritually alive.
Mrs. Annie V. Tucker of Jersey City, N. J. is here spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Thomas and other relatives. Her niece, little Jimmie Mickey will accompany her back to visit her many friends who live in New York City.
The St. James Lodge, F. & A. M.
(5th dinner given at the home of Mrs. Cohen, W. Main St. proved to be quite a success and several
