ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. P. Reeder, Pastor

Zion Church has really been helped by the revival meeting conducted by Rev. R. M. Pitts, of Winston-Salem, N. C. He was successful in bringing sixty five persons to Christ, as well as strengthening those already in the church. We wish for him a continual fruitful life, among those who will accept the truth.

Sunday morning the pastor was at his best. His text was taken from the Jeremiah 8, "The Harvest is past and summer is ended and you are yet saved." Our hearts were made to burn. The evening message was delivered by his assistant pastor.

Conversion is very important, but we can't stop there. Our converts must be trained. We are hoping to have a church training class beginning next Wednesday at 6:00 o'clock. We hope that new joiners will take advantage of the opportunity to learn about the Bible and the modern church program. This institute will be headed by the religious director of Zion Church although other noted men will lecture. Come and bring your note books and pencils.

We are beginning our $5.00 drive for the month of Nov. Let every member have more beside his name then a zero.

We ask all students who do not have a church home worship with us.

Our pastor is rated as the highest and on Sunday he really strut his stuff. And the church choir of St. Luke were made to rejoice. They went saying, our pastor's words reached this day. Sunday was the first Sunday and the Holy Communion was administered to all the Christians and the ushers were the prettiest section that was seen when the junior band of our church combined themself with the Senior Band and marched up in a group [illegible] about to and the Holy Communion was administered to them. They were all dressed in uniforms and they really marched to the music. So let the entire church combine themself together and march to the music. And the church program will so easily go over.

Several sicks still remain on our list. We will pray for them.

The Men's Rally is on and they are looking forward to make [illegible] Sunday one of long remembrance. So let us advance on our knees and pray always for more success in our lives.
