GAFFNEY NEWS

The Cherokee County Teachers Association held its regular monthly meeting last Saturday.

Dr. W. E. Sawyer, Superintendent of the city schools was the guest speaker for this meeting. President J. E. Gaffney presented Dr. Sawyer.

Dr. Sawyer began his address by telling us that he was not a public speaker. His address was to teachers regardless to race or color. His subject was, "The new education." He held his teachers' attention for two hours. This address was a wonderful one and we got plenty to think about from it.

This was our business meeting and after the address we collected our local dues and state dues. Twenty one of our teachers paid state dues and others have promised to pay at once. We next went into election of officers. By a big majority vote Professor J. E. Gaffney and Miss Sallie Epps were re-elected to the offices as president and treasurer respectively, and Miss Veatrice Glymph was elected to the office of secretary for our next year's work.

Rev. Mr. Gilliard and Mr. Hemphill were visitors at our meeting. Miss B. L. Peterson was chosen to represent our Association at the state meeting in March. We adjourned to meet again on the 29th of this month.

A Valentine party was given by the Seniors of Granard High School. Every one expressed himself as having had a nice time.

Miss Ruth Kennedy was the dinner guest of Miss Corrie Petty Sunday, February 16, 1936. After dinner they enjoyed a delightful trip to Blacksburg, S. C.

The members and friends of Dunton's Chapel M. E. Church of which Rev. R. E. Bethea is pastor caused a storm to come over the parsonage Monday night.

At first the inmates were frightened and didn't know what was going to happen. The crowd presented large amounts of choice groceries. The pastor and family could not find words to express their thanks for such a friendly and thoughtful visit.

They wish to thank the members and friends of the church for this kindness, and much pleased to serve a broad hearted people like this.

The following are on the sick list: Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McIntyre, Little Mildred Gaffney. Miss Nellie Goodwin is improving to the delight of her many friends and relatives.

Miss Mary Etta Authur of Johnson City, Tenn. is in the city visiting relatives and friends.

Friends of Mrs. Maggie Smith sympathize with her in the death of her brother, Mr. W. B. Jefferies of Knoxville, Tenn. Mr. Jefferies was also the brother of Mrs. Mary Wilkins and Mr. Eli Jefferies of this city.

The following deaths occurred this week: Little Australia Edwards daughter of Mrs. Zola Edwards; also Master Jacques Ezekiah Simpson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ezekiah Simpson on South Granard St. on Monday, February 16, after a short illness.

The Sunday school was opened at 10:00 a. m. by Mrs. C. A. McCollough, Supt.

Preaching service began at 11 o'clock. Rev. A. C. Wade, pastor, preached a soul stirring sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Foster are the happy parents of a little girl, born February 15. Mother and baby are doing fine.

GEORGETOWN NEWS

By E. J. Ford

On Sunday afternoon a fine crowd assembled in the Howard School Auditorium. Some witnessing and others taking part in the discussion so interestingly was the meeting, until our very efficient leader, Prof. J. B. Bode, said that he thought once of taking a recess next Sunday, the 23rd until Sunday, March 1st, but decided to go on. The forum was opened by Mrs. J. W. Murph. Among some of the things that she said was, that most of us should learn to love. Those with us who are daily striving to lead us intelligently, should prefer especially to the leader of the Forum, whose name was mentioned above, whose name whose name, time and space won't permit. A short, but spicy program was presented by the program committee. Mr. L. Deas, a senior of Howard High read a splendid paper.

An instrumental solo was very much enjoyed, which was played by Mrs. Orilla Thumson. Others that were to have appeared on the program were absent. The meeting was then turned over to the leader, who presented Prof. Geo. Howard, with an editorial clipped from the Columbia State, which was read by Mrs. Kelly to read. The same was commented on. Mr. L. A. Dunmore presented a resolution relative to salary of the teachers of Georgetown County. This quotation brought about a lively discussion. This subject is to be continued. The Rev. R. A. Thompson thinks that there's no hope. Mr. Dunmore pictured the two frogs that fell into a bucket of milk. One gave up and died, the other kicked until butter came, don't give up.

Bethel A. M. E. S. S. under the leadership of Prof. Howard Bishop fitting tribute to the late Bishop H. B. Parks.

Mr. R. P. Gadsden entertained at his home last Friday night the Junior Fishers' Board of Bethel A. M. E. Church. After the regular business sale, saltines, hot chocolate and cake were served.
