We are asking that each person bring another with him next Sunday, June 21. The topic will be "Have We Learned How To Use Our Minds"? This is an interesting topic so come out to help us discuss it.

Come out to all of our services and bring visitors with you for you are always welcome at Betbel. SAINT JAMES A.M.E. CHURCH

Rev. Hale B. Thompson, Pastor

Ashville, N. C .- The past Sabbath was a gloriously beautiful day from sunrise to sunset. Birds. flowers, music and the ringing of church bells were in evidence and filled the atmosphere throughout the city. They made forceful and effective appeal to GO to church-and worship.

The response to this appeal had it's telling effect at our church by the large congregation that wor-shiped. Reverence filled th etemple after the consecrational prayer by our pastor and the touching processional hymn rendered by our pastor and the touching processional hymn rendered by the senior choir. The subject of the morning's discourse was "The Voice of the Cloud" taken from St. Matthew 17:6 and was delivered by the young minister, Brother Bynum Burton, pastor of Chap-pelle Station and a student at Allen college, Columbia, S. C.

The message was well, received and the pastor gave considerable encouragement to the young minister's effort. Upon the opening of the door of the church, Miss Annie Hampton of Columbia, S. C., accepted church connection and was placed on the class of Mrs. E. E. Dooley. Among the vast Wost of visitors were the following: Mesdames Daisy Williams, Jessie Whitten, M. Williams and Miss Hattie Holmes of this city and Mrs. Bernice Lilliewood, Clinton, S. C. Sincere welcome was extend-

The "Children's Day" exercises were conducted at 3:30 under the direction of Miss Viola Blackwell. Mrs. Ethel Marsh and Miss Jessie Thompson. Indeed the children rendered a very interesting program and the pastor commended the group of teachers who worked so hard to make the day a happy-one both for the children and the adult of the church. A large host

ed to all .-

At the evening service a large crowd gathered again for the pur pose of divine worship and a .cqn tinued spirit of deep-interest and reverence was in evidence. Our pastor's message for the evening was taken from Psalm 3:5. The subject used was "Divine Pro-tection." The discourse was in-teresting from beginning to end provoking serious thought and outbursts of spiritual enthusiasm.

All preparation has been com-pleted for the broadcast by the pas tor and the choir through the government's facilities on next Sunday morning from 9:30 until 10:15. Before the close of the service the pastor commended all for their contribution to the services for the day.

Dillon, S. C.—After an abundance of blessings in the past week, through the showers of rain. Dillon's faithful church goers showed their appreciation by wonshiping at some church on last Sunday. Services at all churches report good attendance. The pastors and people are striving to put on new life in all the churches.
Our Sabbath school was nicely represented. The pastor selected subject, "Rhodia A Child Christian"

Evening text St. John 8th chapter and 9th verse. Both of the were great sermons and very fitfor the occasion as it "Children's Day.". Quite a number of our teachers are for Summer school including Miss Clara Campbell and the Mrs Horetha Witherspoon. We do hope for them and others a very successful term.

Don't forget Sunday, June 28 is "Men's Day" at Bethel. The public is invited.

The funeral of Mrs. Priscilla

Johnson, dear mother of Mrs. Lizzie Hortzog, was held at Bethel hurch, June 10, at 3:30 p. m. She being a member of said church a good number of years, Rev. Taylor officiated.
