MORRIS BROWN A. M. E. CHURCH Rev. J. W. Witherspoon, Pastor

Charleston, S. C.—The services at Morris Brown last Sunday, began with the usual sermonette to the children by the pastor, who spoke to them, using the theme "Procrastination." A large group of interested children listened, and were impressed with the remarks of the pastor on the subject chos-en. It may well be ad ed, that old, as well as young, were bene-fitted. At 11:00 a. m. Dr. With-erspoon spoke from the text found in Romans 4th chapter, and 7th verse. The topic discussed, was "The Civilization of the New Age." A splendid sermon, well re-ceived, resulted. Many visitors shared with the congregation in enjoying the message brought by the pastor. Sumday school, and League held forth at their respective periods Long before the hour appointed for the evening service, large crowd assembled to hear Bishop J. S. Rev. J. F. Stanley, Pastor It has been some time since we have said anything through columns of The Palmetto Leader but we want the many readers to know that we are yet alive. .

Sunday night, September closed our week's meeting con-ducted by the Pastor and Rev. Mrs. Ruth Crawford. The meeting was a gospel feast throughout the week. Only three persons confessed Christ, but we feel that the meeeting has helped and that we are on the gaining side. Sunday night Mrs., Crawford med to preach as though it was the last time. The church caught on spiritual fire. After she had finished the pastor came down in the chancel and made remarks on the sermon and lined a hymn, four ladies and two young men joined.

It was quite a surprise to Rev. Mrs. Crawford and her dear husband Bro. Robert Crawford Satur day morning about 5 o'clock when they were -awakened by a car whistle at their door to find it was her youngest brother from Baltimore, Md., and his queenly wife. They had motored by Ar-more, N. C. there the father and his other sister and her husband joined them and they all came to Rains, S. C. This brought all of the family together that was living except one son, his wife and a grand son. You may know that this was a happy family reunion. The brother had not been seen in sevenyears. Then it was the good pleasure of Bro. Crawford to have in his home at the same time, his father, whom he thinks there is no other like.

Everyone expressed themselves as having enjoyed the fervent prayer. Friends the family altar service means something in our tomes and it should not be neglected. If you need someone to conduct your meetings see Mrs. Crawford and you will not be ashamed of her. If you want to enjoy good service get Mrs. Crawford to conduct your meetings. The year is about out but we are looking for our pastor back.
