St. James A. M. E. Church. Sunday school opened at the usual hour with Supt. B. T. Johnson.

11:30 a.m. the pastor of the Fire Baptized Holiness church, Rev. J. H. Mitchell read St. John 14:1-11 as scripture lesson. Used Hebrew 2:3 for a text. Subject Danger and Neglectfulness. Everyone enjoyed the message he so masterly delivered.

Sunday night Elder W. S. Sims of the Greenwood district preached another powerful sermon. The theme was "Follow Me". The following students will leave for the different schools: to State college, Misses J. F. Jenkins, Johnnie and Fiddie Taylor, Annie Haddon, Messrs Allen McKellar, Wallace J. Haddon, To Friendship college, Rock Hill; Misses Jessi L. Jackson, Lila M. Henry and M. C. H. Hearst, To Virginia State Miss Georgia V. Haddon.

MORRIS BROWN A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. R. I. Lemon, Pastor. Charleston, S. C.—The congregation of Morris Brown A. M. E. church worshipped in the basement of Emmanuel church last Sunday, both morning and evening. This was necessary owing to the fact that our church is being painted on the inside. Mother Emmanuel kindly threw open her doors, and made us welcome. The Presiding Elder, Dr. J. E. Thomas, preached at 11 a.m. using as a subject "Arise, Go". The text from which the sermon was delivered was taken from Jonah 3:2. The sermonette followed the usual sermonette to the junior church, which is a fixture at Morris Brown. Dr. Lemon addressed the children, using as a subject "What is the Lord to Me?". At 8:00 p.m. Dr. Lemon preached a splendid sermon from Galatians 6:10. The theme around which the sermon centered was "Admonitions to Good-Will". The heavy rains at night, did not prevent a good audience from hearing the sermon. The presiding elder having to fill another appointment was excused at night. Among the many visitors that were present during the day was the wife of Dr. J. E. Thomas, who was introduced by the pastor. We shall worship at Emmanuel again next Sunday hoping to return to Morris Brown by the 4th Sunday in September for the grand re-opening of our church, and making Leaders' Day a feature. The presiding elder received a check in full payment for his salary for the fourth quarter. Our faithful members are standing by nobly. Our church already presents a splendid appearance on the inside which fills a long want.

NEWS FROM MR. PLEASANT

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. That's what Rev. W. T. Murray and his congregation are singing after such a high day on September 14. The day began with the S. S. with 8:00 a.m. North and teachers in their post of duty.

The pastor preached from St. John 14:27 "The Peace of God" Communion was served and our hearts were made to feel glad. At 4:00 p.m. we were blessed at New Ebenezer. The beloved and senior Bishop of the A. M. E. church was present and the Rev. J. S. Flipper, after a message by the pastor, Rev. Murray, he presented our pastor, Elder J. E. Thomas. He commended Rev. Murray and his lay in the work of the work accomplished in such a short time. The old building was torn down July 17th. After that the pastor and about 50 members worshipped in the new church. No money is being borrowed but they are paying as they go. So to this place the bishop was invited and by gladly accept of the invitation. And on Sept. 5th he was there at 4 p.m. He was presented by Elder J. E. Thomas, Bishop Flipper was happy to greet such a spiritual and enthusiastic group. The building was perfect. Among some of the things said by the bishop was that he wanted his ministers not to be afraid to invite him to their work for he will be any where, where God's people are. He has been preaching six to four years. He is not the senior bishop because of age but because of service rendered and praising God for the years he has lived. He is a born African Methodist; he has the old Methodist fire and he loves to see and worship with a people who are not proud to cheat and say a momentary witness with the truth in the church. He commended the pastor and congregation on the splendid work done, promising them his support and said he will be back to see us.

ST. PAUL BAPTIST CHURCH JUNIOR MISSIONARY

The club held its regular weekly meeting on Wednesday night, Sept. 18 at the home of Mrs. Thelma Johnson at 8:30 o'clock. The meeting was opened by singing "My Faith Looks Up to Thee". The prayer was repeated in concert by Mrs. Pearl Strong, our church member. The scripture was read by Miss Lillian Simmons.

The house was then opened for business. The minutes of the last meeting was then read, received and adopted.

Quite a few of our members was present due to unfavorable weather. The club members discussed a few projects which they are planning to do. We were happy to receive $2.00 as collection. Only 6 of our members present. We were then dismissed for the evening after which we were served a delicious course of cake and salad and drink.

South Carolinian Speaks at Banquet

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 11. In keeping with the custom of the James School of Leadership, 188 usual luncheon for the benefit of the students. These luncheons are given twice a year in that each outgoing class receives the benefit of one. This luncheon was had at the Inn T. Bryant Hotel here.

There was much in the air also a line of tables already set when the young professional men, in their suits and ties, were invited to no end, and about the middle of the banquet the program was had. The speaker of the evening was Mr. Leonard C. Williams of Columbia, S. C., and a student of Allen University of that city and now a student of Gordon Jones School of Leadership of this city. Mr. Williams' speech was received by the faculty, student body and guests present.

MILLERS-CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. R. J. Jefferies, Pastor. Newberry, S. C.—We have just closed a very restful revival at Miller's Chapel A.M.E. church. Six nights we battled for the Lord. The Dr. H. E. Davis of Thomasville, Ga., labored here with us. He is a great gospel preacher. Each night he brought a wonderful message filled with the spirit and the old time fire burned on our hearts.

One of the big features of the meeting was the Object Sermon preached Sunday night using the text St. Matt. 23:26. It was a gem and we can truly say "Did not our hearts burn within us he talked with us by the way". Four members were added to the church.

Our S.O.S. call will permeate on Sunday. Each group leader is urged to make a full report. Show loyalty to your church by coming out Sunday and answer to the roll call. Dr. E. A. Adams, presiding elder of the Newberry district will preach Sunday night.

Dr. McGill, president of Allen University conducted the services for the saints of Second Calvary last Sunday morning. His subject was "Human Coins", taken from Luke's account of the Widow's Lost Coin. Message seemed to be the very one which our people needed. All hope that Dr. McGill may find time to worship with us again very soon. He is truly a great Gospel preacher.

At night Rev. Mr. McKisick, senior at Benedict preached for us.

Our attendance was unusually good and reports for the whole day were gratifying. Several members who had been on vacation were present. The church is waging a campaign for some much needed repairs, especially a roof.

Next Sunday Rev. J. Abney will conduct services both morning and evening. Our church must even feel indebted to this splendid young minister for his services in the cause of the Lord with our church. Our church school is preparing for a public assembly service on the fourth Sunday night.

If the public will watch the columns of the paper they will find our notes regularly and in full. All of the best news of vital interest to our people in particular and to the public in general. Its general news covers all fields of interest and its columns are up-to-date, exhaustive and although conservative yet fearless. Second Calvary says, read the Palmetto Leader, and join us in worship.

LABOR DAY AT HOPKINS By C. M. Williams.

Monday, September 14th Mr. W. S. Holley called the quarterly council of officers of the Fundamental Aid society to meet at St. Luke's church and a usual program for the annual Labor Day picnic which has become a fixture for the people of Highland and Calhoun counties. Another bid the farmers to the fields, hundreds were there enjoying themselves. Quite a few Columbians were there at the request of Bro. Andy Scott, N. S. of No. 25. A very spicy program was arranged by Mrs. Georgiana Mays, L. M., N. S. of the juveniles. As usual Master Ulysses Glasgow captured the crowd with his original compositions. Miss Geneva Whaley and 4 cloutionist Miss Mary Trezevant and Raymond Chatham were stars on the program. Mrs. Lucile Johnson in plain but forceful language expressed the people's appreciation for the work being done by Mr. Holley for the people of Highland and Calhoun counties.

Sister Mary M. Dent conducted the program.

Oh boy! that barbecue was good seasoned thru and thru. Bro. S. Anderson was the cook.

Rev. J. W. New, erstwhile pastor of St. John was guest, report of sick. We all trust he is well ere now.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH Rev. S. H. Lewis, Pastor

Columbia, S. C.—Sunday school met at the usual hour with superintendent and staff of officers present. Beautiful lesson. After a thorough study of the lesson on the classes, Miss Cathlene Howard gave a very splendid review of the lesson to the school which was well received. It showed she made ample preparation for presentation of the review of the Sunday school topic. Rev.

Miss Myrtle M. Gowdy who is a member of this year's graduating class of Barber's Junior college, Concord, N. C. left the city Tuesday for Charlotte, N. C., where she will enter the Junior class at the University of Johnson C. Smith.

Miss Gowdy plans to center her attention in her selected field, the Social Sciences.

Rev. W. M. Gantt, Pastor. Lenoir, S. C.—Sunday school opened at the usual hour with the Supt. Mr. Lewis Ingram in charge. Service 11:30 Rev. Gantt preach of a noble sermon. Sunday afternoon Rev. Stroud preached for us with Camp Creek choir worshipping with us. Sunday night Rev. Stroud delivered another soul stirring message. David Standley rendered music.

We are having our revival meeting conducted by Rev. Stroud. Up to this writing twelve souls have confessed Christ. We are praying that more souls will be saved.

Miss Mary L. B. B. is visiting her aunt Augusta Campbell and cousins, Miss Mary L. B. B. and Julia Campbell. Mrs. M. M. visited their mother, Mrs. T. W. Tuesday of Lenoir, S. C.

Miss Mary L. B. B. and Cornelia B. B. spent Sunday afternoon in Lenoir.

Mr. L. B. B. has returned to Allen University to complete another school term.

Mrs. Ernest Crockett and children of Columbia, S. C. are visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Crockett.

T. JAMES A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. W. B. Bogler, Pastor. Sunday school began at 10 a.m. with a large attendance and interest shown throughout the day. We listened to two wonderful sermons Sunday, the spiritual side ran high throughout the day. The message, Sunday night being our 14th quarterly conference, our Presiding Elder Rev. E. F. G. Dent preached. We were glad to have our presiding elder's wife Mrs. Lida Dent and their daughter at home with us. Several visitors were present, a very good one was our ex-pastor's wife, Mrs. Martha Mosely. Visitation was welcome. Monday night was the business part of the quarter was held with success. All reports showed that the work was progressing. Dr. Dent preached with ease and dignity. And we are praying for his return as presiding elder next year. Mrs. Margie Smith was a visitor at our quarterly conference.

Watch for the results of the Twin Rally in the next issue, being sponsored by our loyal pastor.

EMMANUEL A.M.E. CHURCH

Rev. R. E. Brogden, Pastor. Columbia, S. C.—A pleasant surprise awaited us on last Sunday afternoon during the preliminary on last Sunday morning, we noticed a familiar character seated on the platform. Observing this character closely, we realized that it was a former Sunday school scholar and faithful member of the church. This young man, well known in Charleston, having received his high school education at Avery Institute, did not stop there but continued his studies at Lincoln University, Pa., from which he graduated and is now taking up Theology. Last Sunday morning this young man in the person of Rev. Harry C. Moody was presented by the pastor to the congregation. The text selected by him can be found in the forty first chapter of Isaiah at the tenth verse "Fear thou not, for I am with thee; be not dismayed, for I am thy God; I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness." The sermon was indeed impressive and motivated a thrill of spiritual enthusiasm. Thus, our former Sunday school scholar acquitted himself splendidly.

Sunday school, with Superintendent S. L. Jones at his post, commenced at the usual hour. The weather was somewhat gloomy yet a goodly number of scholars were present. After the discussion of the lesson, Dr. Brogden reviewed the same. We are hoping that the third Sunday will be fair. "Girls' Day" will be observed. The following Sunday the boys will play their part.

"The value of keeping God's laws, and the blessings which come to us." This was the theme from which the pastor spoke during the evening worship. Deut. eleventh chapter twenty-second and twenty third verses "For if ye shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the Lord your God," etc. This sermon was very timely and should dwell with all who heard it. This promise such as was given to the Hebrews is for us also; to keep God's commandments.

CARLISLE NEWS

Rev. J. M. Dawkins, Sr. left Friday night for Birmingham, Ala. to conduct a revival meeting for his son, Rev. J. M. Dawkins, Jr.
