NOTES FROM SECOND CALVARY BAPT, CHURCH

The pulpit committee learned that Rev. C. H. Brown would be a the city for the dedicatorial ervices at Benedict college last funday and prevailed with him to induct services for our church. When it became noised about that he would be with us there was a ustling of not dry bones, but dornant energies in the church and as a result when he opened the erwie's an unusual number of nembers and supporters of the murch were present to greet him and to enjoy the services. Many were the expressions of hope and considence. He preached on "The Certainty of God's Blessings to All who Trust and Obey His conditions." Brother Rob't, L. Simon, treasurer stated the finandial needs of the week and made an argent appeal. The response was most gratifying. Immediate. y following the services the funral of brother Alfred Sligh was held, Rev. Brown conducted these services. Our church choir repreested the church in the services n tedicating the "Starks' Libray" at Benedet college at 3 o'clock At night Rev. Brown preached on ome lessons from Jonale's Gourdvine. The Pulpit Aid club had a very cuthusiastic meeting Monday night and subscribed their full alegiance to the church program The church school teachers and workers are enfled to meet at the church Friday, January 28 at 7:00 c'clock.
