Marie Downing BEAUTY AND ROMANCE

LARIEUSE BEAUTY FOUNDATION

The Larieuse Beauty Foundation was established by the Godfrey Manufacturing Company to study methods of producing women's natural beauty, and to make the results of this research available to the public.

Like Walter Winchell, your columnist is begging off today and letting my "Girl Friday" entertain you. Yes, this is the winning letter in my contest for the best letter on beauty hints. It is written by Georgene L. Williams of Detroit (formerly of Augusta, Ga.). I think it is a fine letter—don't you?

Charm and beauty are dominant, highly competitive factors for women in the game of life. Ability to wear clothes that do something for her, skill in coiffeur arrangement, and a sense of perfect grooming—all are vital. Tricks? Maybe—but they are vital.

"CARE" is the secret of beauty! For skin that is dry, dull and sallow, with large pores, suggest an oil mask massage. Apply a steaming turkish-towel-to-the-face flannel strip of cotton in a solution of facial oil, and place these strips over the chin, upper lips, cheeks, and forehead for twenty minutes, and you will be amazed to find even rough, ashy skin smooth and silky. It works wonders!

To remove blackheads and dirt I mix meal with buttermilk to a stiff consistency, and rub this thoroughly over the surface of my face and neck. This is a regular "Old Dutch Cleanser," chasing the dirt and blackheads. For stubborn, deep-seated blackheads—a handful of fluxweed, sewed in a little bag and rubbed briskly over the face, which has been creamed, will get these horrid "blemishes" by taking lemon ice-cubes, made in the fridge, and massage the face. Sometimes lemon is added to my face cream. Remember, the skin is fighting to preserve its natural slight acidity, and lemon helps to accomplish this, as well as to soften and lighten the skin. Cream mixed with lemon, and applied to discolored parts will bleach and remove blemishes.

When my usually manageable hair becomes gummy and drab, I take an exfoliating shampoo. After brushing the hair thoroughly I wash, and massage it. Then I beat up two eggs and add a little rum and shampoo to lukewarm water. Then, with the application of a little hair-dressing, I find I have the whitest, cleanest scalp and shining lustrous hair.

Rouge and lip-stick should harmonize with each other and with the skin tone. Avoid a "painted look." It is never smart. Rouge, applied to the upper cheek, gives a youthful, enlivened radiance, and an appearance of glowing health. Oil-cream applied to the lips prevents cracking and chapping. The teeth must be white and gleaming well-groomed with a natural polish. BEAUTY, THY NAME IS NATURE!

When I find I have had an over supply of pie or cake, which makes me bulge in odd places, I take more exercise. My wardrobe includes colors and styles that befit my character and coloring.

Personality! I never forget that a soft voice, a calm, gentle disposition, all spell FEMINITY and BEAUTY. From beautiful people come beautiful words. I select my words carefully because I know I am judged by them. Beauty is NOT luck! It is WORK, hard work, but pleasant and I remember that I am the reaper, and I certainly can't say I didn't have a chance!

In my next column, the winner of second prize, Hilda Jean Paul of Baltimore, Md., will appear as guest author.

BENEDICT COLLEGE CLUB

SALUDA NEWS

The W. H. and F. society of Hannah A. M. E. church had a fine meeting at the church Sunday. Sabbath school was opened by the Supt., Mr. L. H. McNary and the teachers were at their post of duty.

Rev. P. W. Harmon conducted the prayer service. Rev. R. A. Young, the pastor, conducted the worship. After several remarks the pastor preached a wonderful sermon. A nice sum was contributed in the collection. The sum of $4.10 was raised for W. H. and F. M. We are planning to put the program over. Come to Hannah A. M. E. church for good preaching.

After service we all motored to Cozier Chapel Baptist church to the funeral of Mr. George Battles. Subscribe for The Palmetto Leader. You will enjoy reading it.

FRIENDSHIP SCHOOL—AIKEN COUNTY

We organize our basketball team last month. The captain is Miss Allie Mae Jackson. Players Carrie S. Taylor, Gladys Williams, Alice Washington, Earhtrine Ware and Lillie B. Washington. We are going to play a game with the Union Academy soon.

On Sunday, January 30, Miss Edna Harrison and Emily Harrison were the guests of Carrie S. and Marion Taylor. Mrs. L. Washington and family attended church at Zion Hill Sunday afternoon.

The sisters of Allie Mae Jackson and Gladys Williams were home from school Sunday.

Our sick: We are glad to know that Mrs. Nettie Woodard has returned from the Aiken County hospital after being ill.

GEORGETOWN DISTRICT GET-TO-GETHER MEETING

The Georgetown District Get-together meeting was held at Arnett church, Monday a.m., Dec. 27 with the king Presiding Elder of the state, Dr. T. J. Miles in the chair. The devotionals were conducted by the presiding elder and Dr. J. E. Thomas, presiding elder of the Mt. Pleasant district. After the devotional service, the presiding elder, came forward and delivered a masterly address to the district. He emphasized the spirit of love, unity and cooperation among the brethren. Dr. Miles is a great presiding elder. He knows how to treat his people. He had gone places to hold his conference and saw his preachers in need and refused to take his money, but gave it back to them. He goes over the district with the Christ spirit. After the address he delivered the assessments for the charges for this year. The meeting was then opened for general discussion.

The meeting was also graced with the following visitors: Dr. J. E. Thomas; Dr. A. W. Hill, pastor of the Baptist church in Florence and the queenly wife of the presiding elder, Mrs. T. J. Miles. Mrs. Thomas and Hill made some very instructive and inspiring remarks.

We feel that the district with this great leader, Dr. Miles at the head is going over the top from every angle this year.

The pastor, Rev. Theodore McClam and his good people entertained the meeting very royally.

EASTOVER NEWS

Missionary day was observed last Sunday at St. Philip church by the missionary women. A sermon was delivered by the Rev. Mrs. Herrington of Columbia. She also preached at Shiloh at 2:00 p.m. Both sermons were delivered with power. A program was rendered in the afternoon sponsored by the newly elected president Mrs. Pessie Squire. A neat sum was collected from the 16 missionary zones.

Communion Sunday morning and League at 6:00 p.m. Preaching at 7:30 p.m. by Rev. W. R. Bowman of Cameron.

The Baptist union met at Mt. Nebo last Sunday at noon with a large crowd from various churches. It is reported that they had a most wonderful meeting.

Meeting will be at Mt. Zion church Sunday morning. Preaching by the Pastor, Rev. Neal who always brings a good message.

Mrs. Frazell Finley of New York City spent several weeks here with her mother and friends. Returned last Wednesday and reported the happiest visit of her life. She is one of the pioneers of Allen University. She will return for summer school and teach South next fall.

Rev. Bowman announces that all subscribers of The Palmetto Leader who live in or near Eastover, Kingville, Gadsden, Wateree, Arthurtown, Lykesland or any other town who have not renewed their subscription for 1938, please renew at once and all who have not paid up for 1937, he will call to collect sometime before the 1st of March. Please be ready to settle up.

So many so called Christians fail to go to church Communion Day. I wonder why?

So many folks are complaining yet they have plenty to eat, good clothes to wear; all their children are in school and they look like the picture of health. I wonder why?

Mr. Henry Pringle who returned last week from the Columbia hospital, was sent back he is resting fine, when last seen.

The New School building at St. Philip is all covered and now carpenters are inside at work. When completed it will be one of the best in lower Richland county. Come to church, go to church!
