Don't Forget the Octagon Soap Wrappers!

Dear Co-Workers:
Sometime ago, Mrs. J. S. Flipper asked us to secure all of the Octagon Soap wrappers possible and report them at the State meeting Sept. 8 and 9th, so as to remodel and beautify our broken down churches. Please let us cooperate 100 per cent in this very laudable project. This is an opportunity for the sisters to show their loyalty to the cause of Missions and also to put over a great program for God and the church. Let us make a good showing for the proud State of South Carolina, and too let us show in a tangible way how much we appreciate the wise counsel and sane leadership of our esteemed State President. May we count on all lovers of the cause to do their full duty. Yours for the sacred cause of Missions,

MRS. L. A. WELLS
Member of Executive Board.

KINGSTREE DISTRICT W. H. AND F. M. CONVENTION
By V. T. Ellis

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Kingstree district is now history. This meeting was held in St. Paul A. M. E. church, August 3-4, at Cades, S. C. Rev. D. W. Washington, pastor. Rev. J. L. Benbow, the presiding elder, assisted by Elders T. J. Miles of Georgetown district and E. F. G. Dent of the Columbia district, conducted the devotionals. Rev. S. M. Hughes was presented by the presiding elder to preach the annual sermon. We were not disappointed by the speaker. A splendid sermon was preached by him. A large number was registered. The organization was perfected. Mrs. Corine Gamble was elected reporter to the religious papers and the writer to the secular papers.

A very thoughtful and enthusiastic Missionary sermon was preached by Rev. W. E. Wagner. The literary work of the convention was very good. Many helpful things were discussed by the elders, ministers and missionary workers and visitors. Much information was given the convention through the annual address of Mrs. M. B. Benbow, president of the district. The financial reports of the district were good. Too much cannot be said for the good people of Cades. They gave us a splendid reception. Their warm welcome shall never be forgotten.

In company with Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Benbow we were the guest of Brother E. L. Thomas and his good wife. They made our stay very pleasant and we felt very much at home.

The convention was graced with many visitors. Those addressing the convention were: Elders T. J. Miles, E. F. G. Dent, J. E. Thomas of the Mt. Pleasant district; A. P. Spears, of the Sumter district; Mrs. R. L. Brown, conference branch president; Mrs. V. E. Murray, president of Mt. Pleasant district; Mrs. Fossie Wilson, president of Georgetown district; Mrs. Spators, mother of Mrs. Benbow; Prof. C. G. Garrett, Mrs. H. E. Thomas, Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Clark, Rev. D. N. Wilson, Mrs. Mae Spears, Mesdames, Minnie Rogers, Harriet Anderson, L. C. Thompson, E. J. Ford and many other friends of the district who did not speak, showed by their presence that they wished for the district a great success.

The missionary spirit permeated by the entire session and the Kingstree district closed a splendid convention.

MISSIONARY WOMEN OF HISTORIC EDISTO DISTRICT HOLD ANNUAL SESSION
By Rev. Julius Holman

Edisto Island, S. C.—The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary convention of the historic and great Edisto district of the African Methodist Episcopal Church met with St. Stevens church on N. Jones Island.

As we write without notes, the set up as we remember is as follows: Mrs. Maggie Alston, president; Mrs. S. L. Brogden, secretary; Mrs. Norther from Mt. Hor charge chief marshal. Reporters were elected to all the papers. Your humble scribe was made reporter for the secular press.

This was indeed a fine meeting from every angle. Emmanuel paid the highest assessment. Edisto paid the next highest. North Jones Island paid out. Mt. Hor's pastor being absent Mr. M. Deas deacon spoke for the charge.

Those who were present will agree that the program arranged by Mrs. Alston was up to time and everyone placed thereon, man or woman, acquitted them and herself well. This was indeed a school of instruction and inspiration.

People went away talking of the high note of enthusiasm and prac-

Gospel Tornado Speaking

Hello World! It has been some time since you have heard from me over this station. I am now pastoring at the Leonard Avenue Baptist Church, 104 S. Leonard Avenue, St. Louis, Mo. To the Baptist Brotherhood of South Carolina:
We are taking this method to let you know that we have prepared for more than fifty thousand (50,000) delegates. I am expecting you not later than September 6. The night of September 6 we are having the local program, which we feel will be of interest to you.

I have been pastoring here two months; am pastoring in Little Rock, Ark. also during the first Sunday and three Sundays here in St. Louis. If you care to write, send all mail to 355 West Belle Place, St. Louis, Mo. So Long. Will be over this Station next week. PMLOC.

My impression for good manifested in this meeting. Dr. Beard our presiding elder was a master on the job. Mrs. Mabel Green conference branch president was present, and with grace, dignity and poise used words of wisdom which were helpful. Mrs. Josephine Brown and Mrs. Florence Rivers of Edisto were proud that they reported next to Emmanuel. Rev. Frank Clark out-did himself in the entertainment. His members stuck by his side. Mr. Blake was on the job. His wife, Mrs. Hannah Blake is an intelligent live wire.

It was stated at the convention that Dr. Beard is the oldest presiding elder in the state and therefore was called by the Edisto district the greatest in the state.

Dr. Brogden is said to be pastoring the largest church in the state and was mentioned as the "biggest" pastor in the state. Mrs. M. J. Alston was mentioned as the oldest missionary woman in the state in point of years of service rendered. She started between 30 and 40 years ago when she was but a young woman and continues until this day.

The church in the state should think about giving her some honor in a tangible way while she lives. All what we say here was mentioned in the convention and seem to have met the approval of all.

Taylor, pastor of Robinson circuit to preach the opening sermon. Rev. David Scott preached the missionary sermon.

The District President, Mrs. V. T. Murray with the cooperation of the convention made contributions to the two pioneer mothers and workers of the district. Mothers Sylvia Bryant and Mary Tenton Registration. All reports were good. The district is holding her own.

The president addressed the convention from the subject "A Place in God's World". Other features of interest were "Worship in Music" demonstrated by Mrs. E. Na Bennett. Demonstrations "How to keep a live Missionary Society" by Mrs. Katie Mollette and Mrs. Carrie James, missionary workers pageant followed by an address by the Conference Branch President, Mrs. R. E. Brown. A young people's meeting by Mrs. V. Lamson, Mrs. Estella Roland.

The welcome program by the pastor and local presidents. Introduction of visitors on the second day. Dr. T. J. Miles, the presiding elder of the Georgetown district; Dr. W. B. L. MORRIS BROWN
A. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. R. I. Lemon, Pastor
Last Sunday the services at Morris Brown were well attended during the entire day, beginning with the services of the Junior church at 10 a.m. The regular morning service convened at 11 a.m. with Dr. Lemon and his pulpit associates in the pulpit. The text selected was from St. Matt. 4:17. The theme deduced from the text was "The gate to the entrance to the kingdom." A sermon well delivered was enjoyed by the congregation present. There were 4 accessions to the church at the morning service. Our Sunday school and A. C. E. League functioned at their respective hours with good attendances. At 8 p.m. Dr. Lemon addressed the "Sons and Daughters of the Pilgrim Society". The address was based upon the theme "Unity", the text being found in the 133rd Psalm and at the 1st verse. A splendid sermon on the importance of promoting the spirit of Unity, and the possibility of failure where this element is not present, was ably stressed as the speaker developed his subject. 4 persons were inducted into the full communion of the church at evening service. Many visitors as usual, graced us with their presence at both services. We are pleased to announce that Sister Sarah H. Brown is now at home from the hospital where she has been confined for the past two weeks. An operation was performed, and she is doing nicely. We are now busily engaged with our distribution of literature at the moment, the coming of Walter White of the N. A. A. C. P., who will speak at Morris Brown on September 20th, 1938. Many people from out of the city, will no doubt avail themselves of the chance to see and hear this noted character. Our 4th quarterly conference convenes on September 24th and will embrace the 2nd Sunday in September, 1938. Our attention is now centered on that event which closes up the work for the conference year. It will not be long now, ere the annual conference will be upon us. We maintain our forward look.
