Dr R. S. Lawrence of Bethel Georgetown is planting himself in the hearts of the members of his the hearts of the members of his Mr. and Mrs, Albert Johnson of church. We would be surprised to Chesterfield and Mr. and Mrs. H. hear anything to the contrary. This is a high class congregation and Bro. Lawrence is one of the most outstanding ministers in our denomination. He is an asset to that entire city. When he left his fashionable church in Charleston Mrs. Mtner Blakeney was fu he urged his members to stand by his successor, the presiding elder, and the connectional claims. Dr Lawrence believes in the "golden rule" and in "sowing and reap-ing." Rev. L. G. Bowman is the right man in the right place. Already Newberry has taken on new life.
