By Charles Spears THE ROVING REPORTER

DID YOU MISS ME OLD PAL?

During my short absence from these pages many of our readers stopped by or came over to find out "howcome" while some telegraphed, and we received so many nice letters from others that it would take a full page to publish them all but thanks, so much, to all.

ROOSEVELT EVANS

Of the Columbia branch of the N. C. Mutual Life Insurance company stopped by to tell me he intended to stop buying the paper if he could not find the column...

PAUL R. WEBBER, Jr.

Of Orangeburg, S. C., instructor of journalism at State College, came over to see if we were still living.

MR. GEORGE H. HAMPTON

Publisher of the "Leader" in a nice letter stated that he thought we had decided we needed a vacation, and was just taking one.

MISS LUCILE BLUFORD

Managing editor of the Kansas City Call, writes to state that the column is interesting and she uses it every time it comes in.

WELL

I have countless pages which could be written tonight, but for lack of space I shall have to come to a close with my favorite Southern poem which all Southerners love.

FROM OLD CHICAGO

Comes this letter. "Many folk ask me about you. Your style is original and your wit and presentation so fresh and frank that you are making thousands of friends you know not of." And one enemy pal... one enemy... Dan Burley, for instance.

P. L. PRATTIS

City editor of the Pittsburgh Courier can write an "A" Numbah Wun letter. "You see well, and you write well, and it is a pleasure to read your column."

In addition to being city editor Mr. Prattis is a columnist and has the largest following of any colored writer connected with any of the big time papers.

CAP'N KID STETSON

Writes the nicest letter of all. "Boy I've looked all over the Hill and down on the Avenue for you. Also through every jail in town, thinking that perhaps you had been speeding... or had gone on a bender, or playing poker."

The lady miss your dope son, I believe you had a million readers." Kid Stetson, New York City. Over a million Bub... Cold figures and letters don't lie.

WELL

I have countless pages which could be written tonight, but for lack of space I shall have to come to a close with my favorite Southern poem which all Southerners love.

When ole Dan was a "lil" baby, sitting on his daddy's knee, he said "pappy that boy on ole A. N. P."

Gwine' be the death of me, Lawd Gawd... Gwine' be the death of me.

ST. JAMES A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. C. A. Stroud, Pastor

Asheville, N. C., August 21—The revival service, conducted by Mrs. K. R. Player, evangelist, closed Friday night amid scenes of joy and gladness. Many persons were added to the churches of Asheville, and many hundreds spiritually revived.

The pastor was in usual form Sunday morning and at night. A touching message was delivered Sunday morning from the subject: "Present Confidences From Past Experiences". At 3 o'clock the service was in charge of Rev. L. H. Beachem of South Carolina. His choir was present and together they rendered a very inspiring service.

On the 22nd inst the pastor and Miss Wilhelmina Deveaux are leaving for the State A. C. E. League convention at Goldsboro, N. C. Rev. Stroud is treasurer of the state organization.

TRINITY A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. J. M. Williams, Pastor

Silver Street, S. C.—The revival meeting closed last Friday night at Trinity with quite a success conducted by the Rev. L. G. Bowman, pastor of the station church, Miller Chapel, Newberry. It is said by many it was the best revival held for many years. 18 were converted and 16 accessions; about 25 renewals more or less; 11 baptisms; and all the Christians revived. The majority of these converts were old people. Rev. Bowman is an evangelist, a gospel preacher and one of the best singers in our church. Bros. John Bozzer, Eugene Metz, M. C. Morris, Toland together with sister Mary Metz, Maggie Burton, Eliza Miller, Gertrude Magnum and many others kept the fire burning and always greeted you with a smile. Doing the week dinner was served by the following persons: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cook, Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Gilliam, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Dewalt and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Metz.

This is Rev. Williams' second term as pastor and it goes without saying he is getting along better; as before all the members are happy and satisfied. The fourth quarterly conference will convene here next Saturday and Sunday and the pastor is asking that all come out and make a round report. Don't be a slacker. Rev. Williams for the last twenty years has been helping presiding elders, pastors, laymen to the general conferences. Its a mighty poor rule that works only one way all the time. He has served churches in all the districts within the confines of the Columbia conference, and has always made his report when the roll was called. He is in the race for election and here by G. A. FALLS NEWS
