S. M. J .-- I am making plans to go to New Jersey and I would he for you to tell me if I will be successful there?

Answer-Take the trip. Don't vorry too mich about getting a ob. You like to cat tentirely too well to loaf and not find work You're in industrious young chap and I am sure that you will get employed shortly uoon your arrival in New Jersey."

B. M. C .-- I am a hard working doing the things I have to do with my money. It is all because my step-lather, will not do his duty at home. Is there a chance of me article I said that Rev. L. G. Bow

Answer-Marriagfe to someone you don't care for won't solve your proplem. After considering your caste thoroughly, I don't think you are imposed upon to the extent that it is beyond reasoning. Share your money with your mother and the family as you are doing when you do meet a nice fellow and marry, it won't be your place to help them anymore.

T. C. B .- Mr. Wallace, this is leap year and 1 want to leap right into the neart of some nice young man and want to know if I will be successful or not? Should I us the proposing?

Answer-You ve just about suc edea in accomptishing your aim. The collere student you have been going with has lost his heart to He finishes this year and with the proper encouragment, he will do the "leaping and proposing" for you. I wish you luck.

D. C. T .- Will it be wise for me to take up the offer the woman that I am now working for has onc.ed to n.e?

Answer-Yes do. You couldn't do any better on any other job This woman is trying to do the right thing by you, and she wants you to continue working for her. Your hours will be longer . but the pay will be better.

A. A .--- I have my husband insurance and 1 wish to know if it is necessary for me to try to keep

Answer-At the present you aren't financially able to keep it. It isn't likely that you and he will return to on's another . . . don't burden yourself by trying to-car-ry it. Take the little change you spend on this policy and add it to your BABY WELFARE'S for he is entitled to it. Another marriare is indicated in your life.

W. R. C .- This boy I go with asks me a silly thing each time we are together. Tell me what 1 must do? Should I continue to sup out to meet him?

Answer-He's judging by your actions. He thinks that you feel the sanle way he does or you wouldn't be slipping out each nite after bed time to meet him. Stop this foolishn'ess right now. You
