

TO THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY GREENVILLE DISTRICT

To the Senior Presidents of the Missionary Society of the Greenville District:

I (O. V. Quarles) as Superintendent of the Young People's department am asking that you organize a Young People's Society in your church. It is our purpose to have a society in every church and every church in a society. We are looking forward to the District Missionary convention which will be held the last of July, in Bethel, Anderson, S. C., and we want the young people to be represented one hundred percent. We are asking any of the young people who will appear on our juvenile program. Notice program for juvenile assessment. Anything I can do to help I am at your service.

Yours for the cause of Christ, Orland Violet Quarles, Juvenile Superintendent, 621 Gilliam street, Greenwood, S. C.

ALLEN-BENEDICT SUMMER SCHOOL ENJOYING PROSPEROUS YEAR

The Allen-Benedict Summer school is enjoying a very prosperous session, according to statements made by President Samuel R. Higgins, Director A. G. Smith and Treasurer J. J. Starks. All these officials are highly elated over the quality of work being done in the summer school and the enthusiasm manifested by the faculty and student group in their approach to their work. A fine program has been mapped out by the social committee to provide an adequate recreational program during the summer. Last Tuesday evening the initial social was held in the Allen university gymnasium. All the teachers had a very enjoyable evening and are looking eagerly forward to the next social evening.

The entertainment committee under the chairmanship of Professor Louis Finley has planned several evening programs of a musical nature which will be announced at a later date. The public will be urged to witness these musical and other evening programs. The enrollment has passed the three hundred fifty mark among the largest number ever to have attended an Allen-Benedict Summer session.

AIKEN NOTES

On Thursday night of last week the Missionary Society sponsored a few rally which was quite a success.

A very interesting program was presented on Sunday night. Its participants were the high school and college graduates who are members of Friendship. JOHNSTON NEWS

Rosa Spring Baptist Church

Sunday night, June 9, our Children Day program was the best we have had in 8 years was said by our Supt., Deacon Alex B. Harrison. Everybody was so sweet in their places; song service was the best and readings and the penny rally was good but our Supt. is asking everybody report a penny for each year of their life. The drive was for the coming of our Forty-Third annual session of the Home Mission Baptist Sunday School convention, which will be held with the Rosa Spring Baptist church, July 13-14.

Sunday evening at 3:30 was a high time with the Mission Society of the Rosa Spring Baptist church. Our President Mrs. Mary A. Hammonds and Mrs. Georgia A. Mobley was calling them to A. Mobley presided. Mrs. E. Griffin made the welcome address and Mrs. S. L. Pope responded to the welcome. Mrs. Peterbank delivered a very good talk. Mrs. A. G. G. spoke on Mission and Sin. Mrs. A. M. Spann spoke on Mission and the D. T. of Christians.

Rev. W. E. Wilson of Bethel C. M. E. church responded to the program. Deacon Alex B. Harrison made remarks. Miss Rosa L. Glover made a round report for '39-40 which was enjoyed by all. Dea. Harrison presented the speaker of the day, Rev. O. C. Parker of Augusta, Ga. Rev. Parker was at his best. Collection $10.11. Mrs. M. A. Hammonds, president; Miss R. B. Glover, secretary; Mrs. Georgia Mobley, mistress of ceremonies.

Sunday, June 23 will be another Children Day at the Rosa Spring Baptist church with Social Revue. Society annual service which will be held by Rev. O. C. Parker of Augusta, Ga.

Mrs. A. B. Harrison is ill at the moment writing to the regret of her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Forrest moved to Augusta, Ga. on Friday. Mrs. R. N. Smith is attending school at Bettis academy.

GRADUATION EXERCISES OF THE PORO BEAUTY SCHOOL The Poro Beauty Culture school located at 2481 Millwood Ave., Columbia, held its most fashionable graduation exercise, Friday evening, June 14th at the Union Baptist church. This school invariably holds one of the most fashionable spotlights. The program was well arranged and beautifully rendered.

First to appear were the Poro dealers, in uniform, representing daily service. Then came the graduation class wearing beautiful attractive evening gowns with the remaining of the program consisting of solos, duets and trios and class song, all of which were well rendered and a most wonderful address was delivered by the Pastor, Dr. L. C. Jenkins. Last but not least was the coffee revue of headresses. Here the different styles were presented and explained to the audience. This was much enjoyed.

Six different cities were represented by graduates in this class including Miss Margaret Mitchell of Ware Shoals; Miss Bessie Mae Johnson of Camden; Miss Sadie Mae Bossard of Georgetown; Mrs. Alma Washington of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. Elizabeth Woodberry of Mullins; Miss Welhelmina Castor, Columbia; Mrs. Claudia Routh Moore, Columbia; Mrs. Ada Ford Love, Columbia.

Diplomas were awarded by our own founder and president, Mrs. Annie M. Malone. Mrs. Malone was well pleased with work being done in Columbia and expressed her appreciation to the instructor Mrs. W. C. Pope, for work done here. Columbia was highly honored and happy to have Mrs. Malone as its guest from Thursday night until Sunday night.

Miss Elsie Searles and Mrs. Alma Denley were hostesses to lovely breakfasts in honor of Mrs. Malone Sunday morning. Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Addie M. Myers of 2216 Washington street was hostess to a lovely and enjoyable dinner in honor of Mrs. Malone.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Pope entertained Sunday afternoon with a beautiful reception in honor of Mrs. Malone. It was enjoyed by all.

Madam Malone and her party left Sunday night for Atlanta, Ga., where they will attend graduation exercises of the Poro Beauty Culture school in Birmingham, Ala.
