News In And The Forest City

CLEVELAND, OHIO

By Rosalie D. Davis Mrs. Lela B. Cannon and grandson, Oscar Cannon of 3163 Ellis Ave., Chicago, Ill., have been the house guests of the former's daughter and-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Turner Dunn of 9213 Folsom Ave., for the past 2 weeks. Mrs. Cannon (Lela B. Neely) attended Benedict College, Columbia, S.C., and was a classmate of the writer's father, the late Alexander E. Dupree. Relatives and friends have made her stay in the Forest City very pleasant. Mrs. Cannon is a very active member in the great Olivet Baptist church, Rev. J.H. Jackson, minister. Mr. Dunn is the son of Mrs. Sophia Wiggins Dunn. Mr. and Mrs. Douglass Webster of 2260 E. 87th St., have as their house guest, the former's mother, Mrs. Clarissa Webster of Chicago. Mrs. Webster is an active member of St. Paul A.M.E. church of that city. Sunday, Aug. 8th, at 3:00 p.m. the noted speaker, Mrs. Margaret Barnes of Oberlin, Ohio will be presented as guest speaker by the Deaconesses of Tridestone Baptist church in a special meeting. The Rev. J.R. Plummer, minister. The Social Workers of East Mt. Zion Baptist church, the Rev. W.M. Downs, minister, gave a lovely garden party on August 7, from 4 to 6 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Dupree, 2209 E. 97th St. The beautiful lawn was artistically arranged so that it resembled a garden. Vases of cut flowers on parts of the fence, and gorgeous growing flowers on the lawn mingled their fragrance, and beauty with the natural loveliness of a perfect summer evening. Over 100 guests were present. Some were in formal attire, others wore regular garden costumes, large hats and dresses to match. Among the guests were Miss Jane E. Hunter distinguished president of the Ohio State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, incidentally, Miss Hunter was born and reared in South Carolina. Mr. A.C. Chandler, manager of the Dunbar Mutual Ins. Co., Mrs. N. Morgan and Miss Dorothy LaForce of the WAVES. The menu consisted of sandwiches of various kinds, punch and cake.

be changed. More than half of the other high school books will be changed also. A price list for all these books will be available in a few days, so that students may come prepared to put in orders for their books on the first day. High school books will be ordered and books from the first through the seventh grades will be free. The school plans to waste no time in getting down to work and students are urged not to get behind to start with. Parents are also urged to make unusual sacrifices so that their children may take advantage of all the time that the State is giving for education, which is very important now and will be more important as time goes on. Mrs. Etta Barnes left for Geneva, N.Y., Wednesday of last week on account of illness of her daughter Mrs. Nellie M. Smith. Mrs. Smith has undergone a very serious operation. DUE WEST NEWS Revival services were held at Mt. Lebanon A. M. E. church from Aug. 1st through the 8th with the Rev. W. D. C. McClary, pastor of St. Andrews A.M.E. church conducting. Much real good was accomplished. Seventeen persons were happily converted and received into the membership of the church. Rev. B. J. Glover and the Christians of Mt. Lebanon and the community gave such fine cooperation that it was seemingly an inspiration to the visiting minister. Rev. McClary was accompanied by Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Smith and daughter, Miss Arnetta J. Smith of Andrews. They returned home after the close of service on last Friday night. Rev. Glover closed the revival last Sunday by preaching an instructive and convincing sermon on Baptism. After this came the Baptist service and the receiving of seventeen new converts into the church.
