CAMDEN JOTTINGS

Some one said to us don't say anything about the church. They read what was said concerning the mortgage of our New Bethel. If Florine E. Hurst does not speak who is to? She is the only born citizen member and who has its history, her home church and a loyal member for thirty-two years whose funeral will be preached in R. Shall ever speak the truth, for if the blessed Lord has any power it is to protect the truth.

We have been rejoicing over the return of Mr. Elmer Pickett after first spending sometime in the city hospital then taken to Columbia after a stringent attack; he is at home. We prayed and God heard and answered. To see him around and about in the drug store one would not think he had been ill. He is a fine young man, along with Walter Wright. My sons I say.

Prof. J. D. McLester is in the hospital in Columbia. We pray for him a speedy recovery.

The Palmetto Leader has gained three subscribers in less than two months: Mrs. Ella Jones, Trenton N. J.; Mesdames Katie Belton and Sallie L. Shropshire of Camden. We are very much pleased.

Mrs. Ellison, WAAC Lucille Bettles, mother has spent one week with relatives in Lancaster and returned.

There were two parties last Monday, one on Chestnut St., sponsored by Mrs. Eliza C. Frierson for her little grandson. The favors: little caps of varied colors were given. Among the group was our friend Mrs. Minnie Alexander who had taken her baby boy to the affair. The other was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, S. King St. in honor of their little girl Lois and George Jr. All had a jolly time.

Mr. J. L. Alexander, Jr., is at home for a few days from Ocean House hotel, L. I. Will leave Wednesday for Gaffney being a member of the faculty there.

We are still thanking the trustees of the city for sub-work in Jackson, if does come slowly; as it seem that work near home is hard to get. We taught at Wesley chapel between three and five miles from the city before leaving to stay in Newberry and during the lapse that one was taken down which never should have been done for the school children in that

REV. HALL CONDUCTS SERIES AT RED HILL BAPT CHURCH

Eastover—The Rev. B. L. Hall of Columbia, was at his best during the revival meeting at Red Hill Baptist church. His strong sermons attracted many people. Nine happy persons confessed religion. The sentiment is that he must return at an early date.

The Rev. Hall spent most of his time at the parsonage and with Deacon Shirey. We thank our pastor, Rev. Robinson, for bringing such a strong minister to run our series of meetings.

ONE-A-DAY Vitamin A and D Tablets

EACH tablet contains 2 1/2 more than minimum daily requirements of these two essential vitamins. Insufficient Vitamin A may cause night blindness, may lessen resistance to infection of the nose, throat, eyes, ears and sinuses. Vitamin D is necessary to enable the body to make use of the calcium and phosphorus in our food. Insure your minimum requirements of these two important vitamins by taking a ONE-A-DAY Vitamin A and D Tablet every day. Economical—50c - or less - per month. Convenient—you take only one tablet a day. Pleasant—children actually like the taste—and so will you. IMPORTANT—when buying vitamins, compare prices and prices. Get them at your drug store.
