Generally at these meetings much time that should be given to the young people is taken in trying to collect assessments but this was not so at this meeting for Pre siding Elder Coe had his program well planned and saw that it was carried out in full. In less than two hours after the opening of the marked O. K. Hence the dele gates were given an opportunity to exercise their gifts and abili ties and certainly they acted their parts well.

The Sunday School institute cor ducted by Brothers J. C. Quarles and E. V. Gibbs was really a treat to the members and friends. Rev. H. L. Warsaw, pastor a Timmonsville and Rev. Gainey pastor, of Mt. Sinai Ct brought the noon and evening messages. These young devines did credit to themselves and the
