They are proclaiming the merits of those whom they want to put into power and, if one believed all the large would be amazed at the l talk, one would be amazed at the Mr. Earl Babridge are glad number of white-souled paladins know they are greatly improved fighting black-hearted traitors to-peace to a troubled earth. These spoilsmen believe that the democracies are easy and that if could be sold on the idea of their pet hero, we would see to it that the government of their own particular acre of Europe be handed over to them to rule.

Let us make one thing clear now and forevermore. We aren' minding other people's business but we HAVE found out that we cannot live free in a slave world Therefore we intend to set the people of Europe free-not give them new masters. We believe in freedom for others as well as for ourselves. We don't let outsiders decide our elections and we aren't putting in our oar to tell other nations whom they shall choose.

What we want for other nations is the same thing we want ourselves-a sane, stable government of the people by the people and for the people; guaranteed freedom for all under the law: no discrimination in basic rights because of class, creed or color; economic security through the right of all citizens of all nations work freely in the trade, business, or profession of their own choice; freedom of educationthat is to say the right such as we have here for any able ambi-tious person to be an Horatio Alger hero; freedom from fear aggression and from secret police and lastly and before all, freedom of worship, no matter what the creed.

What we want for ourselves we want for all, but we do not dic- service at Little Field church aftate methods or rulers.
